Collection and Use of Customer Data

Libre uses your Customer Data for the provision of consultancy and advisory services. This gathering of information is consistent with our offline work practices. Your Customer Data may also be used by Libre to provide you with information about services from us or other products and services which are arranged for you by us with a third party. We operate a strict opt-out policy, such that all direct marketing material contains the option to optout of future direct marketing. If you no longer wish to be contacted for marketing purposes, please write to our data protection officer at: dataprotectionofficer@libre-gp.com

As you browse this website, we will monitor what pages you visit in order to give us aggregate statistics about visitors to our site and their preferences. No information is collected that can be used by us to identify individual users on the public part of the website. Please refer to the information on Use of Cookies for further details.

In order to prevent and detect fraud as well as the non-disclosure of relevant information,

Libre may at any time:

- Share information about you with other organisations including, where appropriate, private investigators and law enforcement agencies.

- Check your details with fraud prevention agencies, as well as against databases and other sources of information.

In addition, we may check the Data you have provided against international/economic or financial sanctions laws or regulated listings to comply with legal obligations or otherwise to protect our legitimate business interests and/or the legitimate interests of others.

By providing your Customer Data to Libre you give your consent to the collection, storage, processing and use of your Customer Data by us as described in our Data Protection Notice & Privacy Policy, these can be found at www.libre-gp.com/privacy

Data collected from third parties

We may collect Data from third parties if you engage with us through a third party. We may also obtain Data from other third parties such as financial institutions, claims service providers (including private investigators) and insurance industry and government bodies for the purposes described above.

Access to your information and correction

Under the Data Protection Acts you have the right to see the personal information we hold about you. To get a copy of this information, write to: the data protection officer, at dataprotectionofficer@libre-gp.com

If your information changes or you believe we have information which is inaccurate or not up-to-date please let us know and we will change it. We will hold on to your Customer Data for as long as necessary for the purposes of providing advisory and related services to you and so as to comply with legal and regulatory requirements.
